Chapter 1 by Brock Thompson

My name is Leonardo Hues, and I can see true reality. I can see things other people can't. I see the reasons behind events, I see how miracles come to life.

I can see you.

Chapter 2 by JM

We are all interconnected; or rather, I should say that everything is interconnected, not just living things, but inanimate objects and concepts like space and time as well. If it exists, then I can see beyond what you see of it, I can know beyond what you know of it, and I can connect with it in ways you cannot.

My name is Leonardo Hues. I told you that already, but I want to make sure it sticks. I want to make sure everything on this earth remembers me and what I am about to do.

See, when you can witness the creation of miracles then you can come to understand what drives them. You can discover how to orchestrate miracles of your own.

And that is precisely my intention today.

You need not believe me yet. Were you in situations you would find me full of nonsense, too. But you will believe me in the end. I speak in a dismissive tone and not with scepticism, but with reverence.

My name is Leonardo Hues. I will save the world.

Chapter 3 by -

Yes, I will save the world. I will save it from disaster; the disaster mankind creates.

I will show you a new way to live. A new way to see reality. The only way to see the true world.

Yes, I will save the world. Through means incomprehensible to people, but understandable to me... Leonardo Hues.

Just wait. You will see the world my way, the perfect way. Right now you only hear my voice.

But I can see you.

Chapter 4 by -

I can see you, scrabbling about the earth. Digging pits deeper. Sinking in shallow water. Drinking from unquenchable wells.

You are hitting your heads against a brick wall.

Trying to breathe. Trying to escape death. Trying to avoid the inevitable.

Why are you running away from me... Leonardo Hues?

You plant flowers, conserve trees, and protect nature. But you cannot even save yourself.

No fears. I am Leonardo Hues... I will rescue you.

You will appreciate me. You will bow down to me. You will live for me.

Because I am Leonardo hues. Who sees the world the way it really is. Who creates miracles. Who is saving the world.

Leonardo Hues - I am saving my world

Windows shattered from skyscrapers, springing oceans of grass upon sleeping cities.

Fields suffocated as water seeped through the ground, making hills into waterfalls and streets into rivers.

Trees burst into flames which surged to the Heavens, like pillars of fire.

Smoke engulfed the blackening sky, blinding all but one... Leonardo Hues.

Yes, the world became one natural disaster - was it Nature?

Yes, the people grew incapable and helpless, or were they being helped?

From one simple miracle the universe crumbled. From the hand of one man global chaos ensued.

No, not chaos to Leonardo Hues. It was the taming of a world. It was the reaping of mankind. It was the beginning of a perfect universe...

A universe saved by Leonardo Hues.

Chapter 6 by Maarten van Elzelingen

Leonardo Hues.

No! I am not Leonardo Hues, I AM GOD!

And the world will remember Me.

Mankind is destroying their own world.

And they blame it on Me.

They blame it on God.

The God that sees everything, the God that knows everything.

The God that tries to create a new world, a new universe.

Fire will burn the world. Wars will destroy the world.

Cold will freeze the world.

I will Judge the world.

I came to this world in the name of God. I will create a new world.

Chapter 7 by Tilly.A.H

Yes I see you sitting on your infernal devices. You could be doing so much more. Saving the planet, saving each other.

But Leonardo Hues will do that.

YOU ALL THINK THIS IS A GAME. A SILLY STORY.

NO. I, LEONARDO HUES WILL BE THE FATHER OF THE NEW WORLD.

YOU ALL WILL PAY.

I see the evil and the cruel in you all.

How long do you think it would take for a man who sees all to go crazy.

Depends. Leonardo Hues went crazy long ago.

And Leonardo Hues never forgets.

I WILL RAGE MOTHER NATURE UPON YOU.

I can and will control this universe

Leonardo Hues

Chapter 8 by MudCat

I HAVE BEEN HEARD!

The masses have gathered.

The voices shall no longer be silent.

The time has come!

But not for Leonardo Hues.

The ignorant shall rule.

The suppressive shall be law.

The discriminative shall control

This too shall pass. My chains will be broken. I have seen it.

For I am

Leonardo Hues!
